

University of Zurich ^{UZH}

English Department / Chair for Early Modern Literature

Guest lecture by Prof. Dr. Annette Kern-Stähler
(University of Bern)

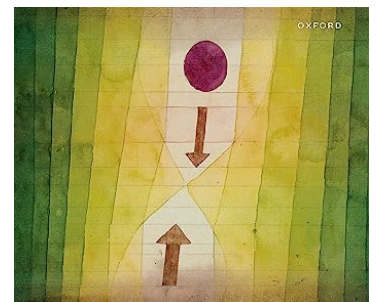

“Approaching sensory disabilities in late medieval English literature”

Wednesday, 8 November 2023, 4-6 p.m.
in PLH-102 (Plattenstrasse 47)

Prof. Dr. Annette Kern-Stähler is Professor of Medieval English Studies at the University of Bern. An acclaimed specialist for the study of the senses in the Middle Ages, she has been co-principal investigator of several international research projects on the senses, with funding received from the Swiss National Science Foundation and the Royal Society of Edinburgh, and is co-editor of Literature and the Senses (Oxford: OUP, 2023, with Elizabeth Robertson) and of The Five Senses in Medieval and Early Modern England (Leiden: Brill 2016, with Beatrix Busse & Wietse de Boer). Prof. Kern-Stähler is honorary professor at the University of Kent at Canterbury and has been awarded a number of important international fellowships.

Literature and the Senses

Edited by Annette Kern-Stähler
and Elizabeth Robertson

Oxford Twenty-First Century Approaches to Literature