

Task 2: Speculating and deducing about the past.

From the previous reading, we get an idea of Roger Casement's persona, what he was like and what he did. Still, there are aspects of his identity and actions left in the dark. We can only speculate about certain events of his life or deduce¹ information from a poem like "The Choice".

Write 6 sentences in the past on Casement identity, personality, or actions using the modal verbs "must", "might", "could", "may", and "can't". Make sure to use each modal verb at least once and to use the correct verb form.

For example: Roger Casement must have loved traveling to foreign countries.
