

Literary City Walk, Zurich

To most people, Zurich is known as the financial heartbeat of Switzerland, as the home of the major banks and insurances. The literary walk means to show another face of the city and highlights the important role literature has always played in Zurich. We'll trace the steps of internationally renowned authors like James Joyce and Max Frisch and dive into the city's rich and colourful literary heritage.

Meeting time: Sunday 18th October, 10 am Meeting point: Zurich main train station beneath the Niki de Saint Phalle angel
Approx. duration: 1.5-2 hours
Things to bring: comfortable shoes in case of bad weather:
umbrella and warm clothing

L'Ange Protecteur (Guardian Angel) by Niki de Saint Phalle