Conference Venue:

The conference venue is located in the main building of the University of Zurich. However, to get directly to the room (KO2-F-152), it is best to use the entrance on Karl-Schmid-Strasse 4 (this is also the entry to the zoological museum) and then mount the stairs up to level F. There will also be signs along the way to guide you.

If you're coming from the main station, take tram nr. 10 (at the stop "Zürich HB, Bahnhofplatz", direction "Zürich Flughafen" or "Zürich, Bahnhof Oerlikon") or nr. 6 (at the stop "Zürich, Bahnhofstrasse/HB" direction "Zürich, Zoo") and get off at the stop "ETH/Universitätsspital", which is very close to the KO2 building. This map also shows you where the KO2 building and the tram stop are located:

Regarding information for directions as well as public transport, it is easiest to use google maps:

<http://maps.google.ch/?ie=UTF8&hl=en>

Just type in the address you would like to go to, then select (in the pop-up that lights up at the selected spot) "get directions", type in your starting point, and choose the option "public transit".
