

Graduate workshop “Family Narratives/National(istic) Narratives”

PROGRAM

9 th June, Tuesday		10 th June, Wednesday
13:45 - 14:00	Registration	Keynote Lecture
14:00 - 14:30	Conflict narratives, identity and intergroup relations among youth from diaspora communities in Switzerland Dilyara Suleymanova, University of Zurich	09:00 - 10:20	Generational Effects on East German Identity Prof. Molly Andrews, University of East London, UK
14:30 - 15:00	Negotiating Post-Memories: Second Generation Narratives on Remembrance of the Bosnian War Laura Boerhout, University of Amsterdam	10:20 - 10:30	Coffee break
15:00 - 15:20	Coffee break	10:30 - 11:00	Nationalism as discursive strategy in self-naming practices by contemporary Lithuanian women Ieva Bisigirskaitė, University of Zurich
15:20 - 15:50	Negotiating Women's Bodies in Public Space: a case study from Egypt Sarah Farag, University of Zurich	11:00 - 11:30	Polish feminist narratives of the In-Between Nina Seiler, University of Zurich
15:50 - 16:20	Narrating the nation: Gender and nationalistic narratives in Turkish school textbooks since 1980 Deniz Yüksel, University of Zurich	11:30 - 12:10	Lunch
16:20 - 16:50	An Entangling Complication: Women's Interpretation of Education in Southeast Anatolia K. Zeynep Sariaslan, University of Zurich	12:10 - 12:40	The Age of Becoming: Shaping the female subjectivity. An ethnographic study in Puebla, Mexico Maria Arteaga-Villamil, University of Barcelona
Evening Lecture		12:40 - 13:10	Marriage of Convenience in Narrations about Exile in Switzerland Irene Messinger, University of Vienna
18:30 - 20:00	Everyday bordering in metropolitan London Prof. Nira Yuval-Davis, University of East London, UK	13:10 - 13:40	Goddess Shrine or Ancestral Temple: A case study narrating identity through spiritual place Yunxia Wu, Lancaster University
20:00 - 21:00	Opening Apero		