

Faculty of Law

Declaration on Publication of the Dissertation

The undersigned confirms that he/she is aware of the following rules and regulations and agrees to abide by them:

- 1 Deposit copies must be delivered to the Zentralbibliothek Zürich within two years of the dissertation being accepted. If the dissertation is not published on the Internet, 36 deposit copies must be delivered, irrespective of whether the dissertation appears in a publication series or not. If the dissertation is published on the Internet, 5 deposit copies must be delivered, irrespective of whether the dissertation appears in a publication series or not.
2 The dissertation must be published with the content that was approved by the Faculty Assembly. If updates or additions to the text prove necessary after the dissertation has been accepted by the Faculty Assembly, they must be submitted to the primary supervisor for approval.
3 Anyone allowing their dissertation to appear in a form other than the deposit copies is obliged to:
a) mark the publication with a special note as a printed version of the dissertation approved by the Faculty of Law of the University of Zurich;
b) submit any changes from the deposit copies (correction, expansion, reduction of the text, inclusion of a preface or epilogue, insertion of illustrations, or a change to the title, etc.) to the faculty for approval prior to publication.
4 If the deposit copies contain any unauthorized deviations from the text approved by the faculty or the other texts contain unauthorized deviations from the deposit copies, the candidate may be required to rectify them at his/her own cost within a prescribed period of time.
