

European Economic Law Examination

1. The class on European Economic Law is completed by a written 2 hour exam. The general faculty rules on exams apply.
2. The examination will be in English. You have to give your answers in English, too. Please write legibly. The exam is not a test of your English language skills which will not be part of the evaluation.
3. The examination will have one or several sections. You have to respond to all of them.
4. Only legal texts are admitted in the examination. You should bring the following texts in any official language of the EU:

- EC/EU Treaty
- Regulation 1/2003
- Regulation 139/2004 (EC Merger Regulation)

Furthermore, collections of European law or competition law are admitted even if they contain other legal texts than those indicated above, e.g.:

- Blackstone's EU Treaties & Legislation (ed. by Nigel Foster)
- Kaddous/Picod, Union européenne/Communauté européenne, Recueil des textes
- dtv-Sammlung Europarecht: EuR
- dtv-Sammlung EU-Vertrag: EUV
- dtv-Sammlung Wettbewerbsrecht und Kartellrecht: WettbR
- Roland Bieber, Europarecht (Nomos)

5. Moreover, you may use dictionaries of your choice (only paper).
6. For the subject of the examination see the general course description at "Jur Info".
